Dealing with complaints

It is recognised that many individuals may be unwilling to make a complaint regarding equal opportunities, for a variety of reasons, including:

- Fear that others will consider that behaviour trivial
- Fear of retaliation and/or public humiliation
- Fear that the complaint will not be taken seriously

Such concerns may make an individual choose to leave the organisation or change their job.

Billcole Haulage (Stevenage) Ltd regards this as unacceptable

Equal Opportunities Policy – V11 02.04.2026

Billcole Haulage (Stevenage) Ltd regards this as unacceptable. It is important that employees should feel able to raise concerns without fear and in the knowledge that their complaint will be taken seriously.

All complaints will receive prompt attention and will be properly investigated. We will seek to resolve them as quickly as possible.

Sometimes it may be possible for an employee affected by the behaviour of another simply to ask the harasser to stop or make it clear that the behaviour is unwelcome. If this is appropriate, then the employee should do this. However, such an approach may not be appropriate, and employees should feel able to raise matters at any time with their line manager or with William Coleman, Managing Director under the business's existing Grievance Procedure.
